

A possible declaration of honour for scientific work (thesis, paper, etc.).
Taken from an autonomous author.

1. The manuscript presents an accurate account of the work performed as well as an objective discussion of its significance. Underlying data are represented accurately in the paper. No fraudulent or knowingly inaccurate statements are included in the paper.
2. The paper presents original work conducted by the authors. Others' works are appropriately cited or quoted. The authors hold the highest standard against plagiarism.
3. The authors like to state that none of this work has been previously published, that all work is my coauthors and that of mine and it is not now being considered for publication elsewhere.
4. Others' works have been properly acknowledged in the paper. No unpublished resources have been used in the paper.
5. All people who have made a significant contribution to the reported study have been included. As the corresponding author, I have the approval of all co-authors to submit the paper for publication.
6. This reported study did not involve human or animal subjects.
7. No financial or other substantive conflict of interest was involved in this reported study. No outside financial support has been used in this study. The study was conducted by the authors with their own time and resources.
